

CASE VIGNETTE: JACOB'S 4 MONTH VISIT, PART 2

Based on Eileen's responses to specific interview questions, you learn that Jacob has had intermittent and increasing fussiness for the past several weeks. He has also been waking more frequently at night.

You also learn that Eileen's mother, with whom Jacob and Eileen live, has told her daughter that Jacob has colic because she isn't taking good enough care of him.